NEFAR charity bass tournament reels in more than $15,000 for Haven Hospice

(PALATKA)—More than 80 fishermen and women participated in the Northeast Florida Association of Realtors (NEFAR) Seventh Annual Charity Bass Fishing Tournament on Sat., Mar. 27 in Palatka. Funds raised will benefit patients and families served by Haven Hospice and the Roberts Hospice Care Center in Palatka.

Michael Morse, Haven Hospice's vice president of organizational advancement and Marsha Davis-Flowers, Haven Hospice retired administrator in Palatka, accepted a $15,323 check from Glenn East, NEFAR CEO and the NEFAR committee.

Over the past seven years, NEFAR has donated approximately $124,000 to the Haven Hospice Roberts Care Center.
