John Berry LIVE in concert to benefit Haven Hospice and Watermelon Festival

(NEWBERRY) - Country singer John Berry, one of the most the most powerful and distinctive voices in country music, will be performing top tunes at the Newberry High School Auditorium on May 8. The concert will start at 7 pm. Berry will be performing past hits, including "Your Love Amazes Me," with "She's Taken a Shine" and "Standing on the Edge of Goodbye," to name a few, as well as hits from his new CD, "Those were the Days." Proceeds benefit the 65th annual Watermelon Festival and Haven Hospice.

Tickets are $20 each for general admission and are for sale at any of the eight Gator Domino's locations or for delivery with any pizza purchase. Haven Hospice in Gainesville and in Chiefland will also be selling tickets. Cash or checks accepted.

The concert is presented by WTRS Thunder Country and Domino's Pizza.

For more information, please contact Haven Hospice at 352-493-2333.
