Winners announced in Cedar Key Getaway benefiting Haven Hospice

(Chiefland, FL)—Joan Hale from Gulf Hammock and Roger Wilson from Old Town have won the Cedar Key Getaway drawing! The drawing raised $7,000 and will benefit Haven Hospice.

Hale and Wilson won a variety of things to do, including a stay at either the Cedar Cove Condominiums or The Island Place Condominiums, a boat tour with Captain Brian's Island Hopper Boat Tours, a fishing trip with Captain Lloyd Collins, kayak rentals from Kayak Cedar Key, meals at Annie's Café and Frog's Landing and a meal at either the Rusty Rim Restaurant, The Island Hotel Restaurant and the Island Room at Cedar Cove!

Special recognition goes to: Harry Coleman for selling the most tickets, Randy Stefanelli from Randy Stefanelli Insurance Agency for creating the idea for this drawing as well as Ryan Bell, Tommy Dunford and the Haven Hospice Chiefland office.

Thank you to area businesses who supported this drawing including: Cedar Cove Condominiums, The Island Place Condominiums, Captain Brian's Island Hopper Boat Tours, Captain Lloyd Collins, Kayak Cedar Key, Annie's Café, Frog's Landing, Rusty Rim Restaurant, The Island Hotel Restaurant and the Island Room at Cedar Cove.

Locations that sold tickets were: Drummond Community Bank, Perkins State Bank, Capital City Bank, Hungry Howie's, BubbaQue's, Sun State Bank, Chiefland Chamber of Commerce, Randy Stefanelli Insurance and Haven Hospice in Chiefland.

All proceeds raised will benefit Haven Hospice in Chiefland.

Randy Stefanelli, Ryan Bell and Tommy Dunford, along with Cedar Key Getaway winners Joan Hale and Roger Wilson, present the $7,000 check to Stephanie Brod, fundraising special events coordinator with Haven Hospice.
