Haven Hospice hosted inaugural Art Exhibit and Reception

(ST. AUGUSTINE, Fla.) – Haven Hospice hosted its inaugural Art Exhibit and Reception on June 2 at Haven Hospice in St. Augustine. More than 100 people attended the exhibit that featured eight local artists.

“Our inaugural art show was a huge success,” said Jill Tager, administrator for Haven Hospice. “It is so wonderful to be able to provide an opportunity to participate in the arts of St. Augustine and I am looking forward to our next show.”

Exhibitors included renowned local artist, Jeanie Fitzpatrick, Dave Kausch of Ec-lec-tique Studio, local art instructor, Marilyn Terry, Haven Hospice volunteer, Sandi Murphree as well as Richard and Leah Barlow, Lynda Walsh and Joseph Stanley.

The next Art Exhibit and Reception will take place in the fall and will feature more local artists. For more information on the next showing, please contact Haven Hospice at 904.810.2377.

Local artist Jeanie Fitzpatrick showcases her work at the Haven Hospice Art Exhibit and Reception on June 2 in St. Augustine.
