Haven Hospice welcomes accounting manager

(GAINESVILLE)— Michelle DeSantis has been named accounting manager at Haven Hospice.

She comes to Haven from Martin Professional, Inc. in Sunrise, Fla., where she served as accounting manager for four years. Prior to that, she served as consultant, senior accountant and staff accountant for Cross Country Home Services, Inc., in Ft. Lauderdale, and as a staff accountant with the Bayview Financial Trading Group in Miami, Fla.

She holds a bachelor of science degree in accounting from Barry University in Miami Shores, Fla.

A Division Two National Volleyball Champion, she also spent eight years coaching volleyball at the high school, club and college levels.
