Haven Hospice hosts “Wine, Cheese, Chocolate and Great Art” art exhibit and reception
Event scheduled for Thursday, September 1

(ST. AUGUSTINE, Fla.) – Haven Hospice will host five local artists at its “Wine, Cheese, Chocolate and Great Art” art exhibit and reception on Thursday, September 1 from 5 p.m. to 7 p.m. at Haven Hospice, 200 Southpark Blvd., Ste. 207 in St. Augustine.

Local artist Billie London has painted in Italy and France and her work has been shown at Moultrie Creek Studios, Imaginations Squared, For the Birds and A Step Back in Time, to name a few.

Diana Patterson has strong roots in St. Augustine with her ancestors moving to the area in the 1800s. Diana is a self-taught artist and specializes in nature and landscape scenes.

Joyful, curious and passionate are a few words to describe local artist Ellen Kirouac. Ellen specializes in dream-like images and has been shown in both private and corporate collections.

Local artist and photographer Mischele Miller truly captures the spirit of everything she photographs. Her work has been featured in many local galleries in St. Augustine, including the St. Augustine Art Association, 130 King Street Gallery, The Meeting Room, the St. Augustine School of Performing Arts and many more.

With more than 30 years experience, local artist Ernest Lee’s love for art has never subsided. Ernest specializes in painting landscapes with oil and has been exploring different styles such as country scenes. His work has been featured on CBS, NBC, PBS, the Ilene Silverman show in Gainesville and in the Art Walks in both Gainesville and St. Augustine.

The exhibit is open to the community. For more information, please contact Haven Hospice at 904.810.2377.
