HAVEN HOSPICE HOSTS SECOND ANNUAL JOES V PROS FAMILY EXTRAVAGANZA IN JACKSONVILLE

(JACKSONVILLE) –It was a beautiful day for a softball game as Haven Hospice and the Baseball Grounds of Jacksonville hosted the Second Annual Joes v Pros Family Extravaganza in Jacksonville.

The event featured the University of North Florida’s baseball team as the “Pros” for the event. The “Joes” consisted of children from the Jacksonville area. The UNF baseball team hosted a mini-training camp with training stations. Festivities also included food and drinks, a viewing area to watch the Jaguars game, music and a grand finale softball game.

One hundred percent of the proceeds from Joes v Pros Family Extravaganza support Haven’s programs and services including Camp Safe Haven, a local program for children and teens who have lost a loved one.

“We are delighted that Joes v Pros supported Camp Safe Haven,” said Haven Vice President for Organizational Advancement Michael Morse. “We believe it is very important to provide support to children who have recently experienced the loss of a loved one.”

Haven currently hosts Camp Safe Haven camps throughout the 18 North Florida counties they serve.
